

L.I.N.K.S. For Spouses

9 September | 29 October | 17 November
0900-1400 | Four Winds Family Readiness Center

L.I.N.K.S. for Spouses offers a bounty of information for both new and seasoned spouses. No two L.I.N.K.S. programs are the same. One from a previous location, may not necessarily offer information you need for your current duty station. We encourage spouses to participate in the class each time they arrive to a new duty station. During this workshop, you will receive the “nitty-gritty” from the resources available to you both on the Depot and out in the lowcountry. This includes Marine Corps history & traditions, understanding pay & benefits, and thriving as a spouse of a Marine stationed on MCRD Parris Island. Ultimately, all participants in this workshop say the best part is meeting & connecting with new friends.
